

I Choose Love

A weekly prayer for the people of West Baptist Church

I choose Love.

No occasion justifies hatred;
No injustice warrants bitterness. I choose love.
This week I will love God and what God loves.

I choose Joy.

I will invite God to be the God of circumstance.
I will refuse the temptation to be cynical...
the tool of the lazy thinker.
I will refuse to see people as anything less than human beings, created by God.
I will refuse to see any problem as anything less than an opportunity to see God.

I choose Peace.

I will live forgiven. I will forgive so that I may live.

I choose Patience.

I will overlook the inconveniences of the world.
Instead of cursing the one who takes my place,
I'll invite them to do so.
Rather than complain that the wait is too long,
I will thank God for a moment to pray.
Instead of clenching my fists at new assignments,
I will face them with joy and courage.

I choose Kindness.

I will be kind to the poor, for they are alone.
Kind to the rich, for they are afraid.
And kind to the unkind,
for such is how God has treated us

I choose Goodness.

I will go without a dollar before I take a dishonest one.
I will be overlooked before I will boast.
I will confess before I will accuse.
I choose goodness.

I choose Faithfulness.

This week I will keep my promises.
My debtors will not regret their trust.
My associates will not question my word.
My family and friends will not question my love and commitment.

I choose Gentleness.

Nothing is won by force. I choose to be gentle.
If I raise my voice may it be only in praise.
If I clench my fists, may it be only in prayer.
If I make a demand, may it be only of myself.

I choose Self-Control.

I am a spiritual being.
After my body is dead, my spirit will soar.
I refuse to let what will rot rule the eternal.
I choose self-control. I will be drunk only by joy.
I will be impassioned only by my faith.
I will be influenced only by God.
I choose self-control.

Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness,
faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.
To these I commit my week.
If I succeed, I will give thanks.
If I fail, I will seek His grace.
When each day is done,
I will place my head on my pillow and rest.
